Call to Worship (Isa. 57:15) led by Mr. Redwine

One: Let us worship God. Thus says the high and exalted one who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy:
All: I dwell in a high and holy place, but I also live with those who are broken and humble in spirit,
One: to revive the spirit of the humble,
All: to restore the courage of the broken.

One: Praise the Lord.
All: The Lord's name be praised.

SINGING CHURCH HYMNAL #529 When Morning Gilds the Skies LAUDES DOMINI

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison) led by Ms. Riggs

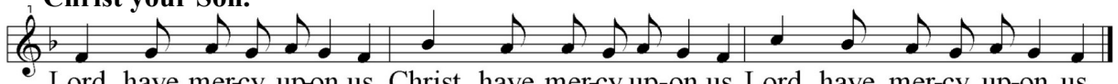
Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sins, and whose mercy we forget in the blindness of our hearts: cleanse us from all our offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires, that with reverent and humble hearts we may draw near to you, confessing our faults, confiding in your grace, and finding in you our refuge and strength; through Jesus Christ your Son.



(silence for personal confession)

May the God of hope go with us every day, filling all our lives with love and joy and peace.
May the God of justice speed us on our way, bringing light and hope to every land and race.
Praying, let us work for peace; singing, share our joy with all.
Working for a world that's new, faithful, when we hear Christ's call

*Please rise in body or in spirit.

THE LORD'S TABLE IS OPEN to all who have been baptized in any branch of the Church. It is our custom to come to the Holy Table, to gather around it in groups, as we pass the paten with bread, and the chalice with wine, to one another. Please break off a piece from the loaf, dip the tip of the piece into the chalice, and then eat. Or, after you take the bread, you may prefer to drink from one of the small cups of (unfermented) wine in the tray that will be passed. If you are physically challenged, an elder will be glad to take to you the consecrated bread and wine.

PLEASE GIVE YOUR PERSONAL WELCOME after today's service to our own talen-

Pastor: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Pastor: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Pastor: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Pastor: It is truly right and our greatest joy to give you thanks and praise, O Holy Trinity, God of mercy and might. You are Creator of the universe, Savior of your people, and life-giving Spirit. We thank you for baptizing us in your name, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and for welcoming us by faith into one holy Church.
Therefore with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven, we worship and adore your glorious name, praising you forevermore:

RESPONSE (all singing; tune Singing Church Hymnal #193, NICAEA, Holy, Holy, Holy!):

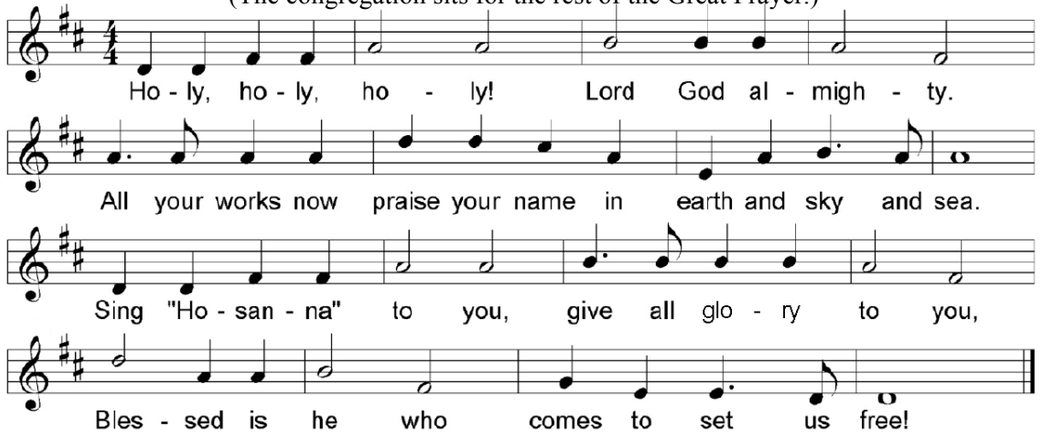
(The congregation sits for the rest of the Great Prayer.)



(The congregation sits, as pastor continues the Eucharistic prayer.)

Pastor: You are holy, O God of majesty, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Born of Mary, he shares our life. Eating with sinners, he welcomes us. Guiding his children, he leads us. Visiting the sick, he heals us. Dying on the cross, he saves us. Risen from the dead, he gives us new life. Living with you, he prays for us. Great is the mystery of faith:
